Is there a father or father figure that you feel deserves to be recognized for all that he does? Well, nominate him for a FameFathers Fatherhood Award.

On Friday, June 15th FameFathers in conjunction with members of Summit County Children Services’ Father Factor, and members of the Summit County Fatherhood Initiative will be honoring fathers and father figures. We would like to recognize those men that personify “Responsible, Committed and Involved, fathers”.

Please choose type of father that best fits your nominee

☐ Father
☐ Father Figure
☐ Military Father

In the space provided below, please explain how your nominee demonstrates “Responsible, Committed, and Involved,” fatherhood.

Responsible:
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

Committed:
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

Involved:
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
Additional Space:

Nominee’s Name_______________________________________________________

Nominee’s Contact Info (Address)__________________________________________

Phone: __________________________ Optional email: __________________________

There will be an award and gift given to (five) winners selected by the nominating committee:
The Fathers will be recognized at the celebrating Father Event (winners must be present)
Deadline for submission is Friday June 8th 5:00 PM at address list below or j.hafford@hotmail.com

Event date and location:
Friday June 15th 6:30- 9:00
Mountain of the Lord Fellowship
1477 Copley Rd
Akron, Ohio

• Fatherhood Resources
• Celebration father award nominees
• Fatherhood student academic awards
• Car show and much, much more

Special guest speaker
Actor, T.C. Stallings from the Movie “Courageous”

More info at: www.famefather.org or 330-873-9794